SIERRA MADRE, CALIFORNIA — THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1959

12 PAGES — Vol. 52, No. 41

Water District Approved

The new San Gabriel Valley Water District was created yesterday by a better than 2 to 1 vote in four cities. The total vote was 4,963 in favor to 2,303 opposed.

Sierra Madre voted 451 to 146. Azusa okeyed the measure 440 to 103, and Monterey Park approved by the largest percentage, 1,458 to 144.

In Alhambra, where one city councilman was against the proposition, the vote was a close 2,614 in favor to 2,303 opposed.

ELECTED A district director from Sierra Madre was David S. Wood, former city councilman and mayor, who was unopposed.

In the only contested race for directorship, John C. Norby polled 803 votes to Bruce Guess' 350 in Monterey Park Division No. 3.

Joining Norby on the board will be Arlin E. Stockburger, Division 1, Alhambra; John W. Clay, Division 2, Alhambra; David Wood, Division 4, Sierra Madre; and Cornelius S. Reed, Division 5, Azusa.

THE NEW water district is separate from another one currently known as the Upper San Gabriel Valley Water District, which includes a much larger area with a total population of more than 500,000.

The four-city district, with a population of about 100,000, was formed primarily as a means of keeping out of the Upper San Gabriel Valley District and the Metropolitan Water District.

The newly created district will enable the four cities to control their own destiny in the struggle for water, according to Louis G. Memmesheimer, mayor of Azusa.

Historical Group Seeks Old Records

The Sierra Madre Historical Society is now collecting data on the city and would appreciate contributions, it was announced yesterday.

The society is seeking letters, pictures, records and ledgers pertaining to the history of the city.

In the near future, the organization plans to have an exhibit of amateur theatricals which have been staged in Sierra Madre. Pictures and programs of any old productions will be welcome.

Those wishing to contribute may contact Miss Lulu Moore, ELgin 5-2550, or Mrs. Yerda Adams, ELgin 5-0496.

Saturday Bowl Tickets on Sale At Music Mart

The Hollywood Bowl will present an all-Tchaikovsky program Saturday night with Andre Kostelanetz, featuring Michael Rabin, violinist.

The Mutual Ticket Agency at the Arcadia Music Mart is handling round-trip bus tickets at $1.25 per person, or $1 each in groups of 20 or more. The busses leave from the parking lot behind the Music Mart at 6:30 p.m. Saturday. Tickets should be purchased prior to Friday noon each week.

Chamber Folder To Tell Wonders Of Sierra Madre

The Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce will release a new brochure in the near future which will advertise in photos and text the attractions of this city.

Anthony Cavalli, secretary manager of the Chamber, said there has been an unusually large demand recently for information about Sierra Madre.

The committee in charge of the folder includes John McKibben, chairman; John H. Curtis, Ralph Hurwitz and E. R. Mitchell.

AMONG MANY enrichment subjects being taught at Sierra Madre School this summer is science, specifically, in this case, hydroponics, or the method of growing plants without soil. Pupils above are examining tomato plants which are growing vigorously in crushed

Covina Band Here Friday

The Covina Concert Band, conducted by Charles King, will play on Friday night in Sierra Madre Memorial Park.

The Covina band is similar to the Sierra Madre Concert Band in that the personnel is largely adult and talented high school and college students.

The director, Charles King, has wide experience in the music field, coming from Canada where he conducted orchestras and a number of professional bands. He was a musician in the Royal Navy and conducted the band of the ship Discovery. He organized the Covina band in 1955.

In the program Friday, the Covina band will play the "Egmont Overture," "Finlandia," "Trumpeter's Lullaby," "Liberty Bell March," and selections by the band's vocalist, Lucille Honeywell. She will sing numbers from "Sweethearts," by Victor Herbert, "Will You Remember?" from Maytime, by Sigmund Romberg, and others.

The Covina Concert Band plays each Thursday evening in the Covina Park. On Thursday, Aug. 6, the Sierra Madre Concert Band will play in Covina.

TENNIS SHOP

Bids for operation of a tennis pro shop as part of the recreational facilities at Arcadia County Park will be opened by the Board of Supervisors on Thursday, Sept. 3. The plan, previously approved by Board Chairman Frank G. Bonelli, calls for the pro shop to be operated on a concession basis under a two-year concession lease agreement.

Missing Diamonds Returned to Owner

Two diamond rings that apparently were stolen a month ago were returned in an envelope Tuesday to their owner, Mrs. Frances McEsey, hair stylist at the Petite Beauty Salon.

The rings, valued at $700, were reported missing to police last June 25. Mrs. McEsey said she had taken them off while working in the beauty salon.

In the envelope with the rings was a letter which said:

"I found your rings in the shop. Somebody told me that you lost yours. I am glad to give them back. Sincerely, G. E."

OK Refreshments At Baseball Meet

The Little League was granted permission by the Recreation Commission Tuesday night to sell refreshments at the baseball tournament July 23 and 24 at James Heasley Field. The permit will apply to these two days only.

Board Hires Three New Teachers

Three new teachers have been hired by the Sierra Madre Board of Education, it was reported yesterday.

New third grade teachers are Mrs. Ruth Burgener and Mrs. Janice Carter. The new second grade teacher is Miss Florence Chang.

Mrs. Burgener, 1249 E. Washington, Pasadena, was graduated from the University of Oregon and taught last year at Valinda School, Rowland School District, La Puente.

Mrs. Carter, 44 Vista Circle Dr., Sierra Madre, was graduated from UCLA and has taught in Los Angeles City Schools.

Miss Chang, 1127 Garvey Blvd., West Covina, was graduated from the University of Hawaii and taught at Ben Lomond School in West Covina.

One teacher is still needed for the fifth grade at Sierra Mesa.

Prize Offered for Parade Pictures

The Sierra Madre Lions Club has offered to pay $5 for the best pictures of the parade on Pioneer Jubilee Days. All photos of the parade should be sent to Tom Hutter, 152 St. Joseph St., Arcadia.

ALSO REPORTED

was the first victim of a rattlesnake in Sierra Madre for many years.

A. J. Paus of Circle H Ranch, off Sturtevant Dr., heard his cat scuffling with a rattlesnake last Thursday. He called police, but the snake had disappeared.

Despite treatment by a veterinarian, the cat died.

THEN THERE is the case of the "unidentified snake," reported at 420 Foothill Ave. The viper is still unidentified and, police said, the description could apply to almost anybody.

Little League Tourney Set Here July 23

Sierra Madre will be host to the Little League Baseball Tournament Thursday and Friday, July 23 and 24. James Heasley Field has been selected as the site for Area 4 of tournament play. Tournament director is Eugene W. Bell of Sierra Madre.

In the first game, the West Altadena All-Stars will play the Sierra Madre All-Stars.

The contest, preceded by pre-game warm-ups and a short ceremony, will begin promptly at 6 p.m. Thursday. Winner of this game will then play the Hastings Ranch All-Stars Friday at 6 p.m. Admission to both games is free. Winner of the Sierra Madre tournament will play other area tournament winners in district playoffs beginning July 31. District playoffs will be at Victory Park, Pasadena.

BOYS ON THE Sierra Madre All-Star squad are Tom Andrews, Mike Baker, Jim Barry, Ed Castagna, Bruce Caswell, Doug Matheson, Jeff Menne, Bill Milford, Jim McRoberts, Dick Polanshek, Frank Purcel, Fred Richter, Mike Ward and Tim Weston.

THE WEST ALTADENA All-Stars, handled by manager Phil Sherlock and coach John Davison, include Tom Sherlock, Joel Holmes, John Warrington, Richard Peters, Donald Evans, Bryan Nelson, Terry Pierson, Bill Bingley, Whitey Gneware, David Broad, John Springer, Mark Davison, Danny Lee and Frank Gutierrez.

Eventually, four United States and four foreign Little League tournament winners will compete in the World Series Aug. 25-29 in Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

The local Babe Ruth League season ended last week with the Kiwanis Cardinals winning the 1959 title. Henry Nuetzel is the team's manager, assisted by Ray Shackelford, coach.

The All-Star team is working out in preparation for its first game next Sunday, July 26, at Brookside Park in Pasadena. Since Sierra Madre drew a "bye" for the first round play-offs, they will play the winner of the Pasadena-Eagle Rock game on Saturday, July 25, also at Brookside Park. The team is being groomed by Henry Nuetzel and Bob Perry.

Tickets to the play-off games can be obtained from the All-Star team members and all proceeds are used to support the Babe Ruth baseball program.

The Sierra Madre All-Star squad consists of:

Masked Man Attacks Hastings Housewife

Sewer Need Is Shown

A report received this week from the County Health Department indicates that the City of Sierra Madre may have to install sewers in three proposed districts.

The report, which is simply a survey of trouble spots and contains no recommendations, will be presented to the City Council at the next meeting July 28.

THE SURVEY shows that in the planned district on N. Baldwin, 39 per cent of the residents have reported trouble in the past few years with their cesspools and with sewage backing up into bathtubs and sinks.

In the Mountain Trail district, 48 per cent reported trouble. In the third district, a large one between Sierra Madre Blvd. and Grand View, from Baldwin to Michillinda, 44 per cent of the residents complained of difficulties.

Although the city has a master plan for the installation of sewers, the Council has proceeded cautiously since it is believed the city will suffer a loss in water if sewers are put in throughout Sierra Madre.

CITY ADMINISTRATOR Lawrence C. Bevington said the water loss is estimated at 20 per cent. Water in sewers, of course, flows into the ocean and is lost, while cesspool water seeps through the ground and eventually is stored in the Raymond Basin. The County Health Department, therefore, is expected to determine those areas in which sewers are badly needed.

Mayor to Open Game at Dodger Day July 31

Mayor Charles H. James will throw out the first ball and City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington will try to catch it at Sierra Madre Dodger Day, Friday night, July 31.

In case the city administrator misses, which is likely, the Dodger team will be on hand to back him up.

Pre-game activities will include an egg throwing contest, base running and a home-run competition. The big show will be between the Phillies and the Dodgers.

Tickets to the game in Memorial Coliseum will be on sale until July 29 at City Hall here. The price of a reserved seat, behind first base, is $2.50. A bus will leave at 6:15 p.m. from City Hall. Price of a round-trip ticket is $1.25.

2 Local Boys In National Tennis Match

Two Sierra Madre boys will enter the 11th annual National Junior Public Parks Tennis Tournament July 27 under the sponsorship of the local Kiwanis Club.

The boys, Larry Morse and William Davis, will compete with top junior players from throughout the United States. The tournament in the Arcadia County Park will run through Aug. 2.

Entrants in the tournament, sponsored by the Arcadia Kiwanis and the County Recreation Department, must have reached their 18th or 15th birthday by Jan. 1, 1959. Both girls and boys are eligible.

The tournament manager is Al Coke of the Arcadia Kiwanis, and the director is Mrs. Norma Landwehr of Sierra Madre.

On July 26, the day before the tournament starts, Bob Perry, a ranking U.S. player, will hold a tennis clinic at the Arcadia courts starting at 5 p.m.

Some of the top junior players will also demonstrate fundamentals of the game. The narrator will be Joe Bixler of Wilson Sporting Goods.

Beaten Victim Escapes by Window

A Hastings Ranch housewife was brutally beaten in her home late Tuesday afternoon by a masked gunman.

The victim, Mrs. Irene Botkin, 32, of 1425 Hastings Ranch Dr., was reported in good condition yesterday morning in St. Luke Hospital. She is suffering from multiple head cuts and shock.

Mrs. Botkin became ill Tuesday and called her husband, asking him to come home from work. Shortly after he arrived, he took the two children across the street and Mrs. Botkin went to bed.

AT ABOUT 4:30 p.m., Mrs. Botkin heard somebody entering the house. Thinking it was her husband and children, she paid no attention.

"All of a sudden I saw a man in the bedroom doorway," she told police. "He wore a mask."

Mrs. Botkin screamed and the masked man struck her on the head. She said she pulled a blanket over her head to ward off the attack, but he continued hitting her with a "black instrument" believed to be a gun.

When the attacker fled, Mrs. Botkin screamed and the masked man struck her on the head. She said she pulled a blanket over her head to ward off the attack, but he continued hitting her with a "black instrument" believed to be a gun.

Cab Co. Asks Rate Hike Here

Taxicab rates will go up in Sierra Madre in the near future, providing the City Council approves.

The Arcadia-Monrovia Cab Co., Inc., in a letter to the Council, asked for the rate adjustment on grounds that it cannot operate profitably in Sierra Madre under the present structure.

The company now charges 45 cents for the first one-quarter mile and 10 cents for each one-third mile thereafter. It is seeking an increase to 50 cents for the first half mile and 10 cents for each one-quarter mile thereafter.

In its petition, the company said that rates recently have been increased in Pasadena, Alhambra and South Pasadena. Valley Cab Co. services Sierra Madre, Arcadia, Monrovia and Temple City.

Caltech Gets New Air Lab

A new aeronautics laboratory building for Caltech has been assured by a grant of $1,050,000 from the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.

The new five-story building will make possible a major expansion of Caltech's already extensive and noted aeronautics program. Caltech today is the nation's chief producer of advanced-degree aeronautical scientists and engineers.

THE NEW laboratory will be devoted chiefly to studies of design criteria for solid propellants for missiles, rockets and space vehicles; flow problems at hypersonic speeds, heat transfer and theoretical fluid mechanics.

The laboratory will house advanced research equipment including plasma jets, shock tubes, electric-arc wind tunnels, and hypersonic tunnels operating at speeds equivalent to 12,400 miles per hour.

In addition to working laboratory space, the new building will provide offices, classrooms, lecture rooms and facilities for about 100 graduate students, most of whom will be doing original research in the field.

THE BUILDING will be called the Firestone Aeronautical Research Laboratory. The gift for its construction was presented to Caltech by Leonard K. Firestone, on behalf of the board of directors.

He said:

"Active participation and financial support by industry in the field of higher learning is mandatory. Caltech is acknowledged to be one of the world's outstanding scientific institutions. Its achievements are a major contribution to national defense and the future well-being of our country."

Dr. L. A. DuBridge, Caltech's president, accepted and announced the gift.

Steel Pie in the Sky

If there's a point in this rambling essay, I guess it's that strikes in the steel industry may be part of a deliberate economic policy by the industry which acts, if not in concert, at least with the tacit approval of the United Steelworkers of America.

Is President Really Fighting Inflation?

Your Congressman

BUT WE ARE told—there is an important theory involved. It is that keeping interest rates high would have the effect of making money

WHERE ARE THE DEMOCRATS?—What is distressing about this whole situation is that the Democratic "leadership" in the Congress won't even let the party make this a national issue. Yet on the question of interest rates, there is a wide gulf between Republicanism and liberal Democracy. This failure to develop issues is the kind of thing National Chairman Paul Butler had in mind when he castigated Lyndon Johnson and Sam Rayburn for their lack of aggressiveness.

Decries Federal Aid as 'Blood Letting' ate regarding aid-to-education, the first federal aid program was for education and carried with it federal controls.)

KANSAS CITY thought it was getting free federal money when it was "given" funds to help pay the cost of airport improvements. But naturally, the government took over as boss of the job. Bureaucrats a thousand miles away in Washington

It would take a regiment of mathematical geniuses, working in concert with a brigade of Philadelphia lawyers, to work through the labyrinth of over-lapping and interlocking programs and projects involving billions of dollars, to determine with any degree of certainty the administrative costs and sheer waste in federal aid. Suffice it to say, it doesn't make sense to: "take blood out of your left arm . . . put it back in your right arm . . . spill some in the process."

Rich Editor

In the course of time, it lies. The doctor receives from $25 to $1,000. The undertaker receives $500 to $1,000, the minister receives $100 to $500.

The specter of Federally imposed "minimum standards" haunts local governments that participate in grant-in-aid programs. It is no longer a question of "What is best for our State?" but "What will the government inspectors approve?"

Mrs. Weaver Attends WCTU Workshop in Redlands

Mrs. Louise Weaver, member of Harter WCTU, left last Monday for Redlands, Calif., to be in attendance at the WCTU workshop being held this week.

The local unit participated in a joint installation of new officers meeting last week with Pasadena Federation WCTU and other unions in the federation.

Those Sierra Madre ladies in attendance at the luncheon meeting, at Brother-ton's, were Mrs. Helen K. Sandage, Mrs. Jack Buchan, Mrs. Lillian Stilson, Miss Maude MacJohnstone, Mrs. A. F. Carlson, Mrs. Dorothy Ruschell, Mrs. Frannie Sea, Mrs. Eva Freeman, Mrs. Margeretta Thompson, Mrs. Emily Crockett, Mrs. Louise Weaver, Mrs. Marie Clark, Mrs. John Hoy and Mrs. Lawrence Moore.

Because of this joint meeting, Harter Union will not meet in July.

CALEXICAN PICNIC

More than 400 from all over the Southwest are expected to be in attendance at the eighth annual picnic of former Calexicans planned for the last Sunday in July at the Sixth Avenue and Maple Street entrance of Balboa Park, San Diego.

Hoffman-Morris Engagement Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman, 1247 Wynn Rd., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jeanne Sharon, to Daniel David Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Morris, 234 Santa Anita Ct.

The news was first revealed at Pasadena High School junior-senior prom held recently at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel.

The bride elect is a graduate of Marshall Junior High School and received her diploma from Pasadena High School last month.

Her fiancé graduated from Pasadena High School two years ago.

No date has been set for the wedding.

CITY PICNIC

Sierra Madre city employees will hold a picnic this Sunday at 3 p.m. in Sierra Vista Park. Recreation Director Dave Sommers is in charge of entertainment.

Chapmans Return From Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie M. Chapman, 721 Brookside Lane, have returned from a three-week motor trip. They were accompanied by his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chapman of South Gate.

The party had planned to spend most of their time at Yellowstone National Park and the Grand Teton area but found rain and snow prevailing.

They then went to Crater of the Moon, Ida, and Crater Lake, Ore.

Enroute home they spent time on the Trinity River and with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett W. Cannon, and their children, David and Joella, in Oakland, Calif.

COMPLIMENTARY

When people criticize your work it means that you have done something worthwhile.

For That Casual Look Try a $1,000 Gown

NEW YORK—If you can manage to wear a $1,000 ball gown with the casual air you'd have in a $5 house dress, you've achieved the fashion stance of the year.

The most opulent and expensive fabrics seen since the court of Louis XIV are used in this fall's fashions, being presented this week before the nation's fashion press, by now almost blinded by the general magnificence of the scene.

PROBABLY the peak performance of the day was given by Roxane, the small, silver-blond and self-effacing designer for Samuel Winston, who feels about fabrics the way most women feel about diamonds and mink.

An example is a simply cut afternoon dress of dark olive green Guipure lace which, Winston announced, cost him $156 a yard. The price of the dress is $800—a Texas buyer has ordered it in all colors.

For lounging around the house, Roxane, advocates dazzling "raja" pajamas, with tunic tops of gold or silver encrusted brocade and slim, cuffed pants of matching satin. These will set you back about $200.

COLORS RUN rampant through the Winston collection, both in daytime tailored suits and ensembles and in lavish after-5 outfits. In the suit lineup are lush woollens in such colors as olive green, seaweed, citron, cerise, henna and of course scarlet, many with blouse or sweater tops of a new sheet knit called "chanka," dyed to match exactly. Also shown are tops of a slightly fuzzier sheer knit mohair, called "etchachan." A number of suits have collars of fox, lynx or opossum, a new favorite in the high-fashion lineup.

For evening wear there are such little items as a short dance dress of char-treuse lace completely embroidered in iridescent pearl paillettes, a full-length ball gown in wheat-patterned white and gold cut velvet, and a completely straight, floor-length sheath made entirely of silver bugle beads, for a modern and wealthy Joan of Arc.

Jack Switzer Visits Friends In Sierra Madre

Jack Switzer, former Sierra Madrean, recently visited friends and relatives in the area.

He received his degree in science last year from the University of California at Davis where he was president of his fraternity, Sigma Nu, for two years.

His brother, Glidden "Bud," also a former Sierra Madrean, was graduated last month from University of California at Los Angeles where he majored in geophysics. He plans to work for his doctorate.

Both boys have been doing research work for University of California, collaborating with doctors in cancer research at the Westwood campus.

The boys' mother, Mary Alice Switzer, has been doing graduate work at University of Southern California and Stanford University.

Wilkersons Entertain At Party

Jack and Marie Wilkerson, former Sierra Madreans now making their home at Yucaipa, Calif., were hosts last Sunday at a party for relatives and close friends.

The occasion was to celebrate birthdays of all those in the group having a birthday during the month of July.

Honored guests included Mrs. Wilkerson, Marjorie, George, Claudia and Jay Shipway and Laurie George.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ernst of Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Switzer of Van Nuys, Mr. and Mrs. George Shipway of Torrance and children, Claudia, Karen and Jay, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson of San Diego, and children, Cristil and Kari, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Johnson of Yucaipa, and Mrs. Edna Johnson of San Gabriel.

Sierra Madre was represented by News Want Ad sented by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis George and children, Laurie, Alay and Bonnie, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Embree and children, Donald, David and Cynthia, William Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pickett.

The childrens' day was completed with rides on horses belonging to neighbors of the Wilkersons.

Attends Funeral

Sam Simpson of Simpson Cleaners, is home from Denison, Tex., where he attended the funeral of his brother, William Simpson. His mother, Mrs. Birdie Simpson, returned with him and will remain in Southern California for three months.

The Simpsons, with daughters, Patricia and Phyllis, had made an earlier trip to Texas because of the brother's illness. However, they were in Sierra Madre at the time of his death.

Start Alcohol Education Early

LOMA LINDA — Elementary school, rather than college or high school, is where formal alcohol education should begin, according to Herbert Hill, executive director of the Alcohol Problems Assn., Washington State.

Speaking during the last week of the Institute of Scientific Studies for the Prevention of Alcoholism, Hill said that "drinking used to be a problem in colleges, then it became a serious problem in the high schools, and now it is becoming a serious problem in the junior high schools."

Holding that alcohol education in the high schools is too late as a preventive measure because usually the problem there is already acute, he believes that in the first, second and third grades the impetus should be placed on getting good health by drinking milk and fruit juices and a balanced diet. This part of the job is handled by the teacher.

EVERY community has a "Best fisherman" - the fellow who always brings something back. Quite often, this fellow will show up at the general store or sport goods shop with a limit catch, just at the time everybody else is fussing about the fact that they just "ain't biting."

Some pass it off as "luck," but there is little luck involved. Anybody can get lucky, of course, and by being in the right place, at the right time, with the proper bait, "load the boat" with fish. But the fellow who does it consistently, in all types of weather and under all conditions has something more on his side than luck.

His first asset, probably, is a thorough knowledge of the water he fishes. He knows where the fish will be when the water temperature is a certain degree, or where they will feed when the water is rising or falling.

The expert angler catches fish because he knows where to fish - or, if he happens to be in strange waters, he "scouts around" until he finds the right spot. Fish aren't everywhere in a lake or stream, especially if it is a big body of water. The trick is to find them.

An outboard motor is essential when fishing big water. It provides the speed and maneuverability the fisherman needs to get from one likely spot to another. Take crappie fishing in the South, for instance. The first order of business is to find a good crappie "bed." Quite often a fisherman will dunk his minnow here and there for two or three hours before he finally locates the "bed." Then, it is not unusual for him to catch his limit in less than an hour. He covered a lot of territory to find the right spot, but it was worth it - and it was much easier because he could crank up the outboard and move on when one locality failed to produce.

People who knock others for having failed sometimes fail to hit the mark themselves.

Progress Report . . .

Broad Social Legislation Approved by Gov. Brown

Gov. Edmund G. Brown combined a post-session "Report to the People" tour in Southern California last week with near dead-line bill signings which the governor said enacted into law some of the most far-reaching social legislation in California's history.

Topping the list of social legislation was a bill increasing maximum unemployment insurance benefits from $40 to $55 a week.

The bill also increased earnings exemptions for partial unemployment from $3 to $12 a week and raised the taxable wage base for employer contributions from the first $3,000 to the first $3,600 paid a worker by an employer.

The bill was AB 590, authored by Assemblyman William A. Munnell, Montebello, the Democratic majority floor leader of the Assembly.

It will provide increased benefits for about 65 per cent of all eligible claimants, with about 30 per cent receiving the full $55 a week.

Gov. Brown also signed into law AB 494 (Assemblymen Jesse M. Unruh (D), Los Angeles, and A. Phillip Burton (D), San Francisco), increasing maximum unemployment insurance disability benefits from $50 to $65 a week.

Disability benefits are paid for off-the-job injuries or illnesses.

The bills brought to four the number of major social insurance measures signed by Gov. Brown. Two others legalized supplemental unemployment insurance benefits and raised workmen's compensation payments from $50 to $65 a week (for on-the-job injuries or illnesses).

GOV. BROWN also signed into law during the week the third major piece of anti-discrimination legislation of his administration.

The bill is AB 594, authored by Assemblyman Unruh.

It broadens prohibitions against discriminations on the basis of race, religion or national origin to include any form of business establishment.

Present law explicitly prohibits discrimination only in certain types of business establishments such as inns and restaurants.

OTHER BILLS signed into law by Gov. Brown:

AB 1008 (Assemblyman Ernest R. Geddes (R), Claremont), increasing the annual minimum salary of teachers from $4,200 to $4,500, effective July 1, 1960.

AB 2161 (Assemblyman Edward M. Gaffney (D), San Francisco, and others), establishing a job counseling and placement service for older persons.

AB 1403 (Assemblyman Seth J. Johnson (R), Los Angeles, and others), creating a co-ordinator of atomic energy development in the governor's office. This was part of Gov. Brown's program.

The co-ordinator will have the job of liaison between the state and federal governments and other states on matters pertaining to atomic energy development and radiation protection.

The bill increases a co-ordinating committee consisting of the co-ordinator and heads of various State departments and an advisory council consisting of the co-ordinator and nine members appointed by the governor.

AB 1245 (Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D), Sacramento), making it a misdemeanor for a person (except news representative) to stop at the scene of a disaster if the effect of his action is to impede rescue efforts.

SB 562 (Sen. George Miller Jr. (D), Martinez), creating 12 new executive posts in state government.

The bill authorizes two deputy directors in the Departments of Finance, Public Works and Mental Hygiene and one each in Social Welfare, Agriculture, Insurance, Employment, Motor Vehicles and Water Resources.

AB 2004 (Assemblyman Charles W. Meyers (D), San Francisco, and others), appropriating $130,000 to the Department of Water Resources for study of pollution in the Sacramento River and $83,000 to the University of California for study of pollution in San Francisco Bay.

AB 2086 (Assemblyman Paul J. Lunardi (D), Roseville), prohibiting modification of an automobile so that any portion of it is lower than the lowermost portion of any rim of its wheels.

Recent fads, primarily by youthful operators of motor vehicles, have resulted in lowering of automobiles so that there is inadequate roadway clearance.

AB 166 (Assemblyman Ralph M. Brown (D), Modesto), establishing a State college in Stanislaus County and appropriating $500,000 for purchase of a site, not yet chosen.

Gov. Brown has until Friday to complete action on remaining bills. Any he fails to sign are pocket vetoed.

The deterrent to progress in the world is that 95 per cent of the thinking is done by five per cent of the people.

I've "Tided," I've "Cheered," "Dashed," "Alled," "Rinsed" and "Luxed," but at last the wash is done after a relaxing vacation in the mountains. I've finally figured out what vacations for mothers are for. It is to give them enough strength and energy to do the laundry a family accumulates in a week. I will say that it was worth it. It is fun to take time off from the regular run of the mill days and get to know your little group again.

Now the ball is over and the TV blares, the telephone demands, and 51 weeks loom ahead until the next retreat into the (Ah) wilderness.

THE IRA LACKEYS of Old House Road have just returned from an 8,500-mile motor tour of historical landmarks across the country which took them a little better than a month's time. The purpose of this vacation was to give their 11-year-old daughter, Jennifer, a first-hand look at American and Canadian history. Their route followed from here to San Francisco, over to Reno, Salt Lake City, through Wyoming into South Dakota, where they visited Mt. Rushmore and the Badlands. They dropped from there down into Iowa where they visited briefly with friends. Then they went across Minnesota and Wisconsin into Michigan where they saw Iron Mountain.

Then they went along Lake Erie and crossed the new Mackinac Bridge. Back to Michigan and across Port Huron into Ontario, Canada. They visited Niagara Falls and Fort Erie. They went on the Queen's Highway to Ottawa where they went through the Parliament Building and were fortunate enough to be able to sit in on a session, and then later meet and talk to the prime minister. They progressed on to Kingston where they saw Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip, as well as their ship, the "Britannia."

They went up the St. Lawrence to Quebec, and then down through the turnpikes from Maine into Boston where they visited friends. Then to Philadelphia and Wilmington, Del., to visit more friends before going to the Chesapeake Bay where they went through the new two-mile tunnel under the bay into Maryland.

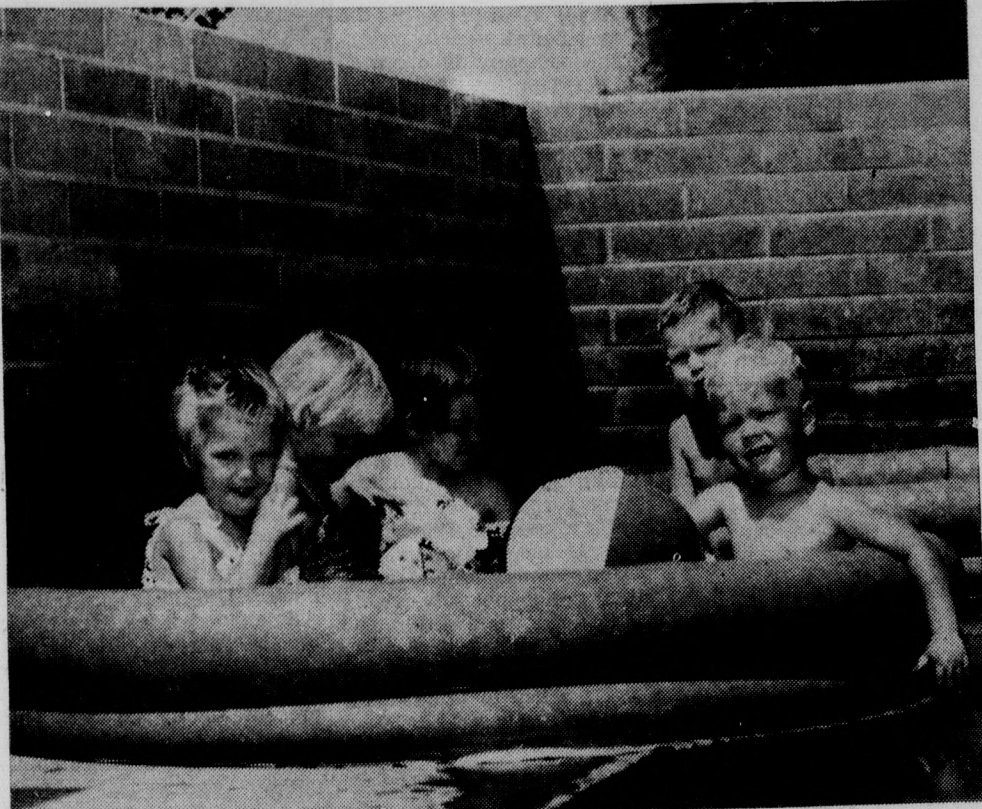

On the 4th of July they were in Washington, D.C., to see the fireworks display. Then came Mount Vernon and Williamsburg, Va., where they saw President Harrison's home on Berkeley on the St. James River. In West Virginia they visited the mining country as well as the section where all the hand-blown glass is made and hand-woven baskets country. In Kentucky they stopped to see Nancy Lincoln's home, Thomas Lincoln's home and Stephen Foster's home, which is perfectly beautiful.

At this point they had almost saturated themselves with all of the history they could absorb as they stopped at every historical sight they came to, so they came across Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, where they did see the Petrified Forest and the Painted Desert before coming on into Pasadena. (And I complained about my washing!)

THE ELTON Osburns of Edgely Lane took a very long weekend at their beach cottage in Corona del Mar. They spent their time water skiing and boating.

THE RICHARD Davidson home at 3020 Meyer Loa Lane was the scene of the Pasadena Rotary Club Tyros Group luau last Saturday evening. The chairman of the party was Carter McDonald, and his committee included Norman Ricker, Loren Grossmuck, Lee Grover, James Christopher, Fred Felberg, Gene Honey, as well as Mr. Davidson.

The Davidsons are barely settled in their new home on

NEW FEATURE at the Hastings Ranch Nursery School this summer are two rubber swimming pools for youngsters to play in when the temperature climbs into the 90's. The Nursery School summer session, for which there are still a few vacancies, runs for another month each Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning. Shown in the pool are, from left, Ann Peasley, Cindy Sessions, Ruthie Waugh, Keith Barber and Dick Larsen.

Yankee-Dodger
Play-off to Decide Winner

The Yankees, by defeating the Dodgers and the Braves this past week, won the second half title with a record of nine wins and one loss. The crucial game of the week was the Yankee-Dodger contest which was won by the Yankees 40-0 on a no-hit performance by Rick Gnagl, his second of the season. Inasmuch as the Dodgers won the first half title, a playoff game for the season title will be played.

The Red Sox won the Minor league championship and will play the Minor League All-Stars. The Major League All-Stars will play the winner of the Sierra Madre-West All-Stars Friday, July 24, at Heasley Field in Sierra Madre, which is located just north of the Sierra Madre swimming pool.

The final league standings:

Major League	W.	L.
Yankees	9	1
Dodgers	8	2
Indians	5	5
Tigers	5	5
Braves	1	9

Minor League

W.	L.

the hill. They moved here from Arcadia with their four children, Christy, 8; Dick, 6; Debra, 4, and Bill 2. Mr. Davidson is a partner in the Supreme Dairy.

DUNCAN SMITH, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of Sierra Madre Villa, celebrated his 11th birthday with a small group of friends. They all saw the new movie, "John Paul Jones," in the afternoon and then returned for barbecue dinner. The guests were Steve Dorsey, Steve Mueller, Larry Stenak, Bruce Burdick and Michael Forest.

MR. AND MRS. Ben Rogers and their four children returned last week from a 1,500-mile trip in a camper and trailer. They went up to Coleville, then over to the Walker River where they met the Robert Henker family, also of Pasadena Glen, and camped with them for four days.

They left from there and went over the Carson Pass to Jackson, and on in to Menlo Park where they visited with relatives as well as the William Friedrichs, formerly of this area. They came on home through Santa Barbara, into town long enough to attend a wedding and then off for four more days at the beach. (What laundry?)

UP ON ...

Hastings Hill

When you can spare a nickel or dime or bill from regular expenses, it might be well to put it away for safekeeping. Not that the breadwinners are in danger of losing their jobs or anything drastic. It's just that money may soon be extinct, and it will be nice to have some of it to show the children later on.

The only ones who need coin-of-the-realm now, actually, are those who haven't yet learned to write their names, and those usually aren't the big spenders—more the penny and nickel crowd.

You can charge anything and everything. What you need are cards, not dollars, in your pocketbook. In fact, from the sneers on some waiters' faces, when handed cash, cards are better than dollars. The lucre seems to be so filthy they hate to touch it.

This charging business is a good thing. We're not fighting it—just the temptation of go on one last grand and glorious spree with all those marvelous cards before they put us away where there'll be no need of money or cards.

There are some who worry that one day, one too many cars will get on the road, and we will all end up in one utterly unsalvageable traffic jam. That, of course, is a possibility, but Americans are clever enough to know they can get out and walk, and start civilization all over again.

But this money business kind of scares us. Next thing you know, they'll fix those chewing gum machines to work on your charge-plate.

THE FRAN Merriam's new pool is almost Olympic sized, and it's almost ready to be filled. They can hardly wait.

DOLORES ZINSMEYER entertained Ranch Wrens at her home the other day for a swimming party. You know, this Hastings Ranch has some good looking girls in it, case you hadn't noticed. Brunette Dodd Baker looked pretty startling in new white swim suit. Hostess Dolores could have graded a magazine cover in two-piece green Hawaiian print, with yellow hibiscus behind one ear just for fun. Dolores broke her little toe the other day, but it hasn't slowed her down, just kept her barefooted.

MARIE WALSH and Dorothy Castor joined forces last week to help celebrate Marty Newton's birthday. The guest of honor was taken to North Woods for lunch and the "agenda" began with champagne cocktails.

THE RANCH is losing one of its most popular families, the George Bartlings. George, a lieutenant-colonel in the Air Force, has received orders to report for duty at Olmead Air Force Base at Middletown, Pa.

CERTAINLY seems as though we are celebrating "Ranch Visiting Parent Week." Ann Roberts' father, John Price of Jackson Heights, N.Y., jetted in last Thursday for a two-week visit—Ola Fenton's mother, Mrs. Mable Hudson of Alameda is here and Rachel Cline's mother, Mrs. Fred Lane, left yesterday for her home in Alabama. Gerry Fahey's parents, the Gerald Faheys of Baltimore, are in the Ranch and are looking for a home to buy in Southern California.

GEN KELLEY entertained at Bullock's Pasadena Tea Room at luncheon honoring three of the visiting mothers, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Fahey and Mrs. Laney.

COME THE 10th of next month and Hastings Ranch CP Guild will open its "Bargain Cottage for Cystic Fibrosis" in Sierra Madre. This new venture for the group is under the direction of Joan Boldemann, Marianna Swanson and Joanna Wells with an assist from Janie Johnston, Betty Mildrum and Pat Giangregorio.

THE ROSS Burke family is getting itself settled in its new quarters at Newport Beach. The Ranch will miss them. Both Ross and Mary did more than their share in volunteering for jobs that had to be done at Don Benito and in the immediate community.

MARIE McIlvennan and the boys returned last Sunday from a two-week holiday at Pacific Beach, near La Jolla. They were joined on the weekends by the "headman."

GORDON and Fran Wright and their two boys also returned last Sunday from their holiday at Balboa. Fran's mother joined them for the stay at the beach.

Lucie and Marge.

Fred Fentons
Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Fenton, 1165 Coronet, and their daughter, Sherry, have returned from a three-week trip through the South, where they visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. Fenton's mother, Mrs. Mable Hudson of Gadsden, Ala., came to the west coast with them and will remain in the Ranch until the first of September.

'Snow White'
Show Due
Wed. at Civic

The magical tale of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" will be presented Wednesday at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium by the Summer Youth Theater Guild of the Pasadena Department of Recreation. Two performances will be given, a matinee at 2 p.m. and an evening show at 8 p.m.

One hundred and fifty young actors, actresses and dancers of the community have spent most of their summer vacation time preparing for this gala production. There will be colorful dances, choreographed by Margaret K. Ellis of the dance division. Also many spectacular special effects have been created.

The play will be directed by Ellen Bailey, assisted by Helen Baker and Ken Bowman.

The public is invited to see "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." There is no admission charge. The doors of the Civic Auditorium will open one-half hour before curtain time.

New Play
To Open at Padua Hills

CLAREMONT, July 21 — "Hacienda del Charro" will open a run of seven weeks July 29 at Padua theatre. Written by Eligio Herrera, stage director at Padua, the three act play deals with ranch life in the Mexican State of Jalisco. And the love story is considerably more involved than the usual triangle.

Embroiled in romantic problems will be Celia Garcia, Guadalupe Rubio, Rogelio Alfaro and Roberto Armenta, newcomer to the Padua stage. The play will also mark the return to the stage of singer Manuel Gonzales.

"Hacienda del Charro" translated into English means the landed estate of the aristocratic and skilled horseman, one so skilled, in fact, that he is able to demonstrate the finer points of horsemanship to his vaqueros or cowboys.

"Hacienda del Charro" will run through September 12. It will be performed six times weekly Wednesday through Saturday evening with matinees each Wednesday and Saturday afternoon.

Each performance of the play will be followed with the colorful Jamaica Fiesta where patrons and the Mexican Players come together for an interlude of fun in a carnival setting beneath the olive trees of Padua.

Local Demos
Mapping Plans

Hastings Ranch Democratic Club, beginning to get excited about the 1960 national convention in Los Angeles, is mapping many plans for the next few months, according to the club's president, Dorcas Sharpe.

Next on the schedule will be an outdoor party Aug. 15, details to be announced later, which will be open to all Democrats and their friends, including Republicans, according to Mr. Sharpe.

Ken Christianson
Addresses Recent Insurance Meet

Kenneth W. Christianson, 1230 Coronet, was one of five agents to address the national convention of Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. which was held recently at Banff.

The Christiansons, with their children, Kip and Kim, stopped in Eugene, Ore., en route to the convention to pick up his mother, Mrs. Carrie Christianson, who made the trip with them.

Mr. Christianson also has been elected a director of Los Angeles Life Underwriters Association, which numbers 1,200 members.

Hunter Safety
Program Set
July 27 to 31

The Pasadena Department of Recreation, Pasadena Police Department, California State Fish and Game Department and the National Rifle Association will conduct a hunter safety program featuring proper gun handling at home and in the field.

It will be held at the Jefferson Elementary School, 1500 E. Villa St., Pasadena, from 6:30 to 8 p.m., July 27 to July 31, free of charge.

For registration to this annual "Gun Safety Week," call the Pasadena Department of Recreation, SYcamore 3-9177.

Children under the age of 16 are required by law to present a certificate of competence in safety before a hunting license can be issued to them. A certificate will be given to boys and girls who attend all the classes and pass the examination.

Mrs. Einhorn
Visits Family
In Israel

Mrs. Ephraim E. Einhorn, 3705 Alder Lane, and her daughters, Daphna and Sharon, have returned from an eight-month stay in Israel.

Mrs. Einhorn, a native of Haifa, visited her parents. Daphna attended kindergarten and Sharon was enrolled in a school for pre-school age children.

On their return trip, they visited in Italy, France and London, where they were guests of her sister and family.

SUMMER SCHOOL
Two Sierra Madre students are attending the six-week summer session at the University of California, Santa Barbara. Among 800 students enrolled are Sarah Myers, 201 W. Grand View, and Toni Saadi, 388 Marioposa.

A first child, Patricia Lee, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Byrne, 1395 Michillinda, June 26 at St. Luke Hospital, weighing 6 pounds, 14 ounces. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Houghton of Berkeley, Pa. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Byrne of Fair Lawn, N.J.

A daughter, Glynda, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Glyn

Mrs. Cline
Fetes Guests
From South

Mrs. Warren H. Cline, 1215 Hastings Ranch, entertained at a morning coffee honoring her mother, Mrs. Fred Laney, and a sister, Mrs. Louis McKenzie, who left yesterday for their home in Birmingham, Ala., following a 10-day visit in the Ranch with the Clines and their children, Stephen, Michael and Candy. Mrs. McKenzie's daughter, Joyce, also was in the Ranch.

Party guests included Mrs. Gordon S. Templar, Mrs. Max Goudge, Mrs. Art Young, Mrs. Victor E. Caffee, Mrs. Gerald Fahey Sr., Mrs. Gerald Fahey Jr., Mrs. Jim Jenkins, Mrs. Robert Housel, Mrs. Fred Fenton, Mrs. Mable Hudson, Mrs. Tony Kraft, Mrs. Jack Sweetman, Mrs. William K. Shiner, Mrs. Gordon Foster and Mrs. Isabel D. Oswald.

Naval Reserve 'Buddy Campaign' Set July 22
The Joe Howard Naval Reserve Surface Division 11-38 in Pasadena is sponsoring a "bring a buddy" campaign on July 22 for the benefit of young men between the ages of 17 and 26.

A program showing the activities of the Naval Reserve is planned plus a film depicting the Naval Reservist on a cruise in the Mediterranean.

Information also will be given concerning the Armed Forces Reserve Act of 1955, which has just been extended for four more years to July 1963.

Jane Mobus
Entertains
At Luau

Jane Mobus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Z. Mobus, 1175 Pine Bluff, was hostess last Sunday at a luau. Guests, arriving in Hawaiian attire, were presented with colorful leis. Food was roasted in a traditional pit and served to the young people as they gathered on grass mats.

The festivities also included swimming and dancing. Those in attendance were Brenda Bartling, Susan Beers, Joyce Goudge, Lucy Johnson, Judy Mayhew, Jan Ostrander and Gail Templar.

Also, Rob Babick, Chris Barr, John Kinard, Doug Senour, Jimmy Simone, Robbie Thibaut, Barry Truscott and Gene Vance.

EMPLOYMENT UP
SACRAMENTO — California employment in June was at an all-time high and unemployment was down substantially from a year ago, two State agencies reported yesterday. John F. Henning, California director of industries, reported that total civilian employment rose to a record 5,853,000 in June, up 192,000, or 3 per cent, from June, 1958.

Garden Notes . . .

Save Money by Growing Delphinium, Primroses

It takes some patience to grow perennials from seed, but such a small amount when you consider the rewards. Delphinium, for instance, can be grown for a fraction of a cent per plant. So can the big hybrid Polyanthus Primroses. And if that doesn't make you patient, friend, what will?

Pecuniary reward is only the half of it, however. The experienced gardener knows no greater satisfaction than starting perennials from seed, watching them sprout and then rearing them through a lengthy adolescence to their full blown maturity. If you start the process now, you get your bloom next spring.

ACTUALLY, growing perennials from seed is, no harder than growing many annuals. It just takes longer. The seed is slower to sprout, the growth period before bloom is more drawn out.

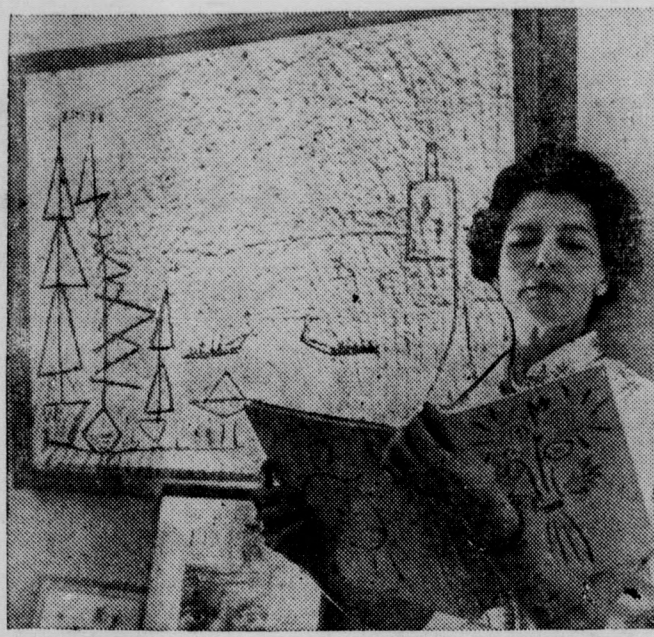

A check with the California Association of Nurserymen indicates that Delphinium, Primroses, Columbine, Perennial Gaillardia and Penstemon are all available at member nurseries in seed packets. Others, such as Pinks or Candytuft will turn up when you browse a seed rack.

A nursery flat is the recommended container for starting seed. If you haven't one, your nurseryman has them cheap. A good planting mix would contain equal parts of loam, steer manure and sand. Here again, you can either mix your own or buy a ready-mix from your nurseryman.

FILL THE flat to within an inch of the top and firm it with a brick or block. Scatter the seed on the surface (not too thickly) and cover with soil to an eighth of an inch or less. Water thoroughly, using a fine spray only—or let the flat soak up water from below.

Cover the flat with a newspaper and set it in a shaded location where it can be kept moist. Germination may take a month, and when it is well along, remove the paper and move the plants into sunlight to firm them up. When they have two sets of true leaves either thin, or prick them out and transplant to another flat.

ART OR NOT? . . . Mrs. Margaret Silberman, holding a Pablo Picasso book, wants to bring the Picasso mosaic (background) into this country without duty on the grounds that it is art.

THEY WANT A JOB . . . United Auto Workers Union members picket Ford, asking that the new "small Ford" be built in Michigan rather than the contemplated Ohio location.

Rounds Win Top Prize Second Year

Rounds Floor Coverings of Pasadena and Arcadia has been nationally honored for the second time in two years by winning a Mohawk Carpet Mills sponsored contest open to all franchised Mohawk dealers in the United States.

The company is operated by Pat Tumilty, 1405 Sierra Madre Villa, and he and his wife conceived and edited the winning promotion.

The contest was primarily based on the best overall promotion tying in with one of Mohawk's three major selling events. The category chosen by Rounds was "Acrylic Carpets."

A large portfolio containing more than 20 detailed, illustrated pages of advertising campaigns featured special novelty devices used by Rounds. Another determining factor was Rounds' recent carpeting of Disneyland's "House of Tomorrow" with Mohawk Acrylic carpeting. Among other requisites, radio spot advertising was used plus interior and exterior displays.

Mr. and Mrs. Tumilty will receive a trip to Jamaica for winning the contest.

Hollywood Bowl To Feature Youth Bands Aug. 15

Meredith Willson Night in Hollywood Bowl, Aug. 15, will be the biggest demonstration of youth bands ever seen here.

Noted for his "Music Man," a partly autobiographical story of a music man in a small town of Iowa, Mr. Willson is having some 500 young musicians assist the stars on the program.

For the number "76 trombones" Mr. Willson has put out a call for all high school and college band trombonists who would like to appear in Hollywood Bowl, Aug. 15, to contact immediately Robert Machamer.

BREAKING THE ICE should be great fun in the case of Mrs. Parra Lee Ridenour, 1144 Tierra Alta, Pasadena, who was the lucky winner of the first drawing held at Atlas Federal Savings and Loan. The cake of ice was part of a novel program which took place in conjunction with the investment period at the savings association. Each day some coupon holder won a frozen 150-pound block filled with cash. Assisting Mrs. Ridenour load her "cold cash" into the car is William V. Lynch, assistant treasurer at Atlas Federal.

producer, at Hollywood Bowl, HO 9-8171.

Selections from "The California Story," "The Music Man," and the world premiere of "The Band" will be presented on the program with Rini and Meredith Willson and the large company.

$465,000 Donated for Caltech Student Housing

A joint gift from two Los Angeles industrialists will build a new $465,000 student housing unit at Caltech.

The donors are Samuel B. Mosher and Earle M. Jorgensen Jr., who will share the cost of the new building which will house graduate students. It will house about 60 students and will be one of the four major units in Caltech's proposed Graduate Student Center in the campus.

Dr. L. A. DuBridge, Caltech president, made the announcement. He said construction will start next spring.

"In the next ten years," said Dr. DuBridge, "Caltech hopes to increase its graduate enrollment by about 50 per cent. This gift will enable us to put a substantial number of these students in their working headquarters."

Most of the Institute's present enrollment of 550 graduate students now live off the campus. The new unit will go up on the north side of San Pasqual St. between Holliston and Hill avenues.

Mosher, a native of Carthage, N. Y., and a graduate of the University of California, is chairman of the Signal Oil and Gas Co. and is chairman of the board of the Flying Tiger Line, Inc. He is a director of the American Petroleum Institute, and during World War II was a director of the Petroleum Institute War Council.

JORGENSEN, a Caltech trustee, is president and general manager of the Earle M. Jorgensen Co., one of the country's leading steel distributors, and board chairman of the Baker Steel and Tube Co. He is also a director of the Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles, the Northrop Aircraft Co., Transamerica Corp., and the Rheem Manufacturing Co.

In a joint statement the two donors said: "The California Institute of Technology has an unsurpassed record in the training of graduate students in science and engineering. These young men are among the most gifted and most valuable in the country, and they are among the hardest working."

Low Blood Pressure Is Seldom Dangerous

(Presented as a public service by the Foothill District of the Los Angeles County Medical Assn.)

QUESTION—What precautions are taken to prevent sponges being left in a patient after an operation?—P.R.

ANSWER—A careful count is made at least twice before and again following surgery to make sure all instruments, sponges and other materials are accounted for. Should a sponge (actually a pad of gauze) be missing in the final count, an X-ray can be taken which will reveal its presence inside the patient since all sponges are prepared with X-ray opaque markers in them.

Q.—Are all brain tumors fatal?—F.B.

A.—No. The percentage of harmless (benign) tumors of the brain almost equals that of malignant, or cancerous, tumors. Such localized benign tumors may often be removed by operation with few, if any, undesirable after-effects. These tumors may press upon the brain substance, causing symptoms without actually invading it, and do not recur after removal.

Q.—Why is low blood pressure seldom discussed? Isn't it dangerous?—R.C.

A.—Low blood pressure in itself seldom is dangerous. Most people with it can be happy they have it.

There are certain diseases, such as Addison's disease, in which low blood pressure is one of the symptoms, but they are comparatively rare. One of the mechanical causes of low blood pressure is a slower-than-normal reaction of the blood vessels to changes in demands of the body.

Blood vessels constrict or expand in response to varying needs of exercise or sudden movement in order to compensate for shifts in volume. Persons with low blood pressure may find a dizziness or fainting spell occurring when they rise suddenly from a reclining position. This is due to the fact that nerves which supply the blood vessels do not act quickly and smoothly enough to overcome the effect of gravity and there is a momentary decrease of blood to the brain.

Q.—If a person has gallstones, but doesn't have any trouble, should the gall bladder be removed?—S.F.

A.—It is usually advisable that this be done because of possible future complications, particularly those arising when stones travel from the gall bladder into the ducts.

A JUG OF WINE AND HOW . . . This Italian wine-drinker probably won't run out of something to sip at a Genzano cafe. But where's the bread?

Old Spanish Days, Little Tokyo Head August Events

Festivals range from Old Spanish to Little Tokyo and corn in the Southland during August, according to the monthly calendar issued by the All-Year Club yesterday.

Santa Barbara's famous Old Spanish Days Fiesta will be held in the light of the moon Aug. 12-16. The historical parade, El Desfile Historico, with its silver-mounted riders, bright costumes, ox-carts and old coaches, is one of the most colorful to be seen anywhere.

Two blocks of the Little Tokyo district in Los Angeles will be decked out with Japanese lanterns and bright banners for the 19th annual Festival of the Nisei (Americans of Japanese descent) Aug. 15-23. Hundreds of Ondo dancers will weave their rhythmic way in a parade and there will be Kendo (fencing) and Judo tournaments.

MORE THAN 40,000 ears of fresh corn on the cob are expected to be consumed in La Habra's annual corn festival Aug. 1. There will also be fried chicken and home-made pies, following a western parade featuring a television star.

Five pretty ranch girls compete for the farmer's daughter title at the Farmers Fair of Riverside County at Hemet Aug. 19-23. They must drive tractors, bake biscuits, milk cows and survive a mystery test which last year was cutting a boy's hair.

Big Bear Lake, once the scene of a gold rush, holds its Old Miners Days Aug. 1-2. In the burro race usually held, 100 of the braying beasts and their tired wranglers race 42 miles from Apple Valley.

ONE OF THE top yachting regattas of the United States will be held off Newport Harbor Aug. 15-22, the world championship of the International Star Class Yachting Association.

Oxnard holds its 10th annual Community Fair and Junior Livestock Show, with kids parade and Mother Goose farm, Aug. 19-23.

Santa Paula, known as the "lemon capital" because the world's biggest lemon ranch is there, also is an art center and holds its 23rd annual Art Show at the high school Aug. 19-23.

With the theme "Harvest Time," Elsinore holds a Harvest Festival Aug. 18-22.

The Answer to "No Fix, No Pay" Service Calls

To begin with remember the old saying and very true saying that "you never get anything for nothing." These people imply that you get something for nothing and this is misleading for that is not what it means. A service shop in order to operate to your benefit requires outside men to repair minor troubles in the home and a service shop to repair major troubles in the shop.

Either way the set will be fixed. Any shop worth their salt can fix any set therefore the "no fix, no pay" will not apply for the service man can fix the set. They try to imply that if the customer does not want the set fixed there will be no charge but this is not the case. The customer has to pay for the call if the customer refuses to let the service man fix the set even if it has to be brought into the shop. Your service calls that are much less than average are what they call "door openers" which means a way to get into your house and get to your set.

The total bill in the end will in the vast majority of the cases be much more than if you called a service man who charges a normal service charge. The service man has to charge an amount to cover his expenses and if he does not he has to make it up some other way. If he makes it up some other way he has to what you call "play under the table."

If he does this on a service call what will he do in the shop? The vast majority of the service men are honest and will in most cases give you a better job than they charge for but a few make it hard on all of them. Do you know any service men who own a swimming pool or any of the other luxuries of this category? I doubt it. The Better Business Bureau states that the vast majority of the complaints received from them are from those who charge less than the normal rates for service charge or uses what we call "bait advertising." The television business is no different from any other type of business in that the television man must make a profit to stay in business and he has to charge a rate to enable him to do this fairly without hiding his charges or misrepresenting himself, so patronize this man and he will give you a fair shake.

If you do not have a regular man for your service and you want a fair repair at fair prices that are aboveboard call this associated dealer . . .
